Senator Potter reports

... the latest news from Washington
of special interest to Michigan ...

POLITICS was forgotten last week as an estimated 100,000 glad hands welcomed Vice President and Mrs. Nixon back from an eight-nation tour-studded South American tour.

It will be a test of our maturity as a nation to take in stride the hostile episodes which demeaned and endangered them.

The President and Vice President have emphasized that our relations with Peru, Venezuela and other countries have been and will continue to be friendly, that the incidents were sparked by a tiny band of radicals.

These are countries to which we are traditionally bound by ties of hemispheric solidarity and by the Rio pact, signed eleven years ago, which allies us for the safety and well-being of all. Of course, we must not permit a few ill-starred episodes to cloud these ties. Obviously, we need to do a better public relations job in South America, to acquaint the man in the street with our very real concern for his freedom and our nation's interests.

However, certain important questions must be answered now: Were the riots more than communist-inspired? What was our intelligence doing in the meantime?

These were not warm and protected at the Caracas airport? In the light of this, what protection can the average citizen expect from a so-called friendly government when he visits for business or personal reasons? Should the State Department require further guarantees for the safety of American nationals?

In the days to come these questions will be explored by Congress and other branches of the Government. No matter what we find, the American people have reason

Freedom A Dead Duck? . . .

It is heartening to report that there has been a vast amount of protest over a ruling of the Internal Revenue Service concerning certain institutional advertising by the taxpaying electric utility companies of the country. This advertising, in general, has presented the private enterprise side of the power question as against the socialized power side. And the IRS said it could not be regarded as a legitimate business expense in making tax returns.

A typical view is found in a resolution passed by the National Newspaper Publishers Association: "... such advertising is a threat to freedom of speech, freedom of the press, and freedom to communicate, and this infringement upon the constitutional rights of independent power companies, other businesses and individuals, and is a violation of the fundamental principles upon which this country was founded and which have made it flourish under economic, political and social freedom."

Editor Jack W. Gore of the Ft. Lauderdale, Florida, Daily News, reprinted that statement and added: "If a private power company can be penalized in this fashion then any private industry, including the press, can be throttled in much the same way. In other words, the federal government can propagandize the people all it wants to and even use our own money against us to accomplish its ends. But free enterprise, threatened by government encroachment into its field of business endeavor, can't take its case to the people and treat the cost as a legitimate business expense."

If taxation can be used as a weapon to prevent the free expression of the views of any business or group, we can write freedom off as a dead duck in this country.

The Anti-Gov. Competition Act . . .

How can we materially cut the cost of government without imperiling or eliminating any activity which the country really needs?

There is one good answer to that all-important question. It is this: By getting the government out of tax-exempt business-type activities which can and should be carried on by taxpaying private enterprise.

MEMORIAL DAY

Bills designed to do just that are now pending in both House and Senate. They are known as the Anti-Government Competition Act, and they would direct all the Federal agencies to get out and stay out of most business-type activities not specifically authorized by statutes.

In a letter to members urging support of these bills, the President of the Chamber of Commerce of Del Rio, Texas, said: "Our free enterprise system depends on you and me. Its very life is being snuffed out by subsidized government competition." That is not an exaggeration — government has gone into business on a far greater scale than is generally understood, and the cost to the taxpayers runs far into the billions. Congress could do no greater service to the country than to reverse that trend.

Interesting Events In Grayling 23 Years Ago

INTERESTING ITEMS OF NEWS GATHERED FROM THE FILES OF THE AVALANCHE OF 23 YEARS AGO

May 30, 1935

The special election held Monday for voting on approval or disapproval of the new city charter resulted in approval of the provisions as drawn up by the nine-man charter commission, which are to become the laws under which the city of Grayling is to be administered until such time as the people may wish to offer amendments or changes. The vote was 190 yes, 145 no. Also at that time five councilmen were elected. They are as follows: Jesse E. Schoonover, Carl Jensen, Chris W. Olson, Frank Sales and Roy O. Milnes. Hans Petersen, an active and experienced justice of the peace, was elected first justice under the new administration, defeating Frank Barnett. There were no candidates for the office of constable, but Bert DeFrain was elected when his name was written in upon several ballots. The village council will meet next Monday night and turn over its authority to the newly elected council. A mayor and mayor pro tem will be selected from the members of the new council. A budget will have to be approved and a manager engaged for the coming year. C. A. Miller who has been serving some time as engineer for the village will very likely be offered the position of manager. During these past several weeks with the new waterworks project confronting the council Mr. Miller has proven himself of inestimable value in working out the hundreds of eccentricities necessitated, in order to comply with the demands of FWA executives and other governmental agencies and it is doubtful if it could have been accomplished without such expert assistance.

BUSINESS PICKUP SEEN IN LOCAL BABY BOOM

(Special to the Avalanche)
NEW YORK - One bright spot in Crawford County's economic picture, on a long-term basis, is the big booming birth rate locally.
The baby crop, which is setting records, is a matter of prime importance to local merchants, some of whom are deep in the doldrums at present. For babies are big business. They are consumers. Each one of them arrives on the scene with a loud demand for all the necessities of life.
New facts and figures on birth rates locally and in the other parts of the country, together with their significance to American business, have come from the National Office of Vital Statistics for Crawford County, they show, the rate has climbed to 27.3 births per 1,000 people. This refers only to the local population and does not include babies born to non-residents.
The rate is 11 per cent higher than that of the United States as a whole.
And an even greater baby boom in the years just ahead is something that can be counted on with assistance. For it is then that the big crop of babies of the World War-II period will be producing their own offspring in numbers.
By 1958, estimates the Census Bureau, we will have about 30 million more people than we have today. Already, new babies are arriving at the rate of 4,300,000 a year and the pace is rising rapidly.
To American business, it means in essence that a great many more people will soon have to be supplied with food and clothing and homes and the countless number of other consumer items that go to make up our standard of living.
During a normal lifetime, these 30 million additions will require over 7 billion pairs of shoes, 175 billion pounds of beef, 350 billion quarts of milk and 73 million new cars, according to U. S. News and World Report.
How will it all affect Crawford County? If local merchants get no more nor less than their consumer demand, their annual business will be at an estimated $6,720,000 a year, 25 per cent more than at present.

Dr. Tomshany Again Receives National Honor

National honor came to Dr. A. T. Tomshany once more this year. It is now the 4th time that he has been chosen for awards and honors by the Freedoms Foundation at Valley Forge. One of these awards was first place and top honor among ministers of the U. S. A. He was cited for outstanding achievement in bringing about a better understanding of the American Way of Life.

The Rev. and Mrs. Tomshany are well known in Grayling, as for the past 25 seasons they have done preaching, lecturing and shopping in Grayling. When he was pastor of the First Presbyterian Church in Battle Creek, Mich., they purchased a summer home at Bear Lake and since then they have been coming here every summer, even though in the meantime they lived in far away Kansas and for the last 16 years have been traveling all over the U. S. A.

Just now they came here from Kentucky, where they conducted evangelistic revivals. Prior to that they were in St. Petersburg, Fla., where they did preaching, lecturing and conducting musical programs. They will remain here till the fall of the year.

MRS. PEARL PENCE PASSES AT HUDSON

Mrs. Pearl Elizabeth Pence passed away May 17, 1958, at Hudson, Mich. She is survived by her husband John, her mother, Mrs. Lillian Beck, and a sister, Mrs. Wilbert Simpson, both of St. Ignace; three brothers, Raymond, Russell and Mervel Beck of Roscommon; seven nieces and three nephews.

Pearl Elizabeth Pence, age 62 years, was the daughter of Andrew and Lillian Craft Beck. She was born May 22, 1895, at Rose City, Mich. She was united in marriage to John Pence at Nipigon, Ontario, on July 4, 1923. Their early married life was spent in Detroit until 1934, when they purchased their present farm home on Sage Road in Hillsdale County, southwest of Hudson. From then until 1948, Pearl managed the farm while John continued on with his work in Detroit. In 1948 John retired from Detroit and became a resident farmer.

Pearl, until her health began to fail, was an active member of Lenawee Chapter No. 174, O.E.S. and the Golden Shrine No. 49 of the White Shrine of Jerusalem.

America is strong, vigorous, healthy... So is GRAYLING

GRASSROOTS STRENGTH... THAT'S US

WE HAVE SOLID CONFIDENCE IN THE FUTURE OF AMERICA

Grassroots strength. That's us.

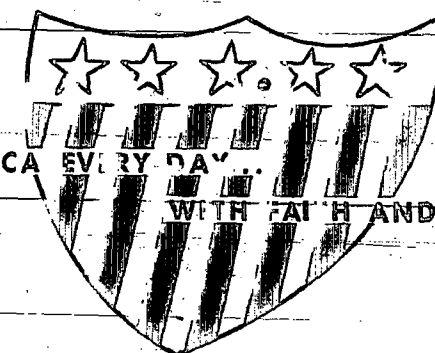

We have solid confidence in the future of America and in the future of our community because we Americans are just plain solid people.

We're blessed with that rare combination of a strong agricultural and a strong industrial economy, joined together in a free society that is on the march. There is purpose and determination—not fear and despair—in the American reaction to a temporary slowdown of the greatest economic system since the beginning of history.

The grassroots people of this community will work their way out of this so-called set-back because they are true Americans whose background and tradition is built on confidence in their way of life. There's a new sense of purpose about America today. It will improve the climate of business which in turn will spell real, true prosperity for us all.

Work with a purpose, spend your money for the things you need, save a fair share for future needs, and this great country we live in will prevail against all artificial creeds and all state-is-supreme philosophies.

This grassroots recovery starts right here at home. It's success depends on our free-will effort and our shirt-sleeve energy. That's America. That's us. Let's go!
